

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL DETAILS

Surname	Osendarp
First names	Jacobus Ferdinand
Name	Jack
Address	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Postal code and place	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Telephone number	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Date of birth and place	XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
Sex	Male
Nationality	NL

ACADEMICAL EDUCATION

- 1999-2003: University Leiden, Masters in Tax law
- 1994-1995: University of Amsterdam, Masters in Business Economics (“doctorale opleiding bedrijfseconomie”)
- 1990-1993: University of Amsterdam, Post-Masters education ‘certified public accountant’ (Dutch CPA) (“Postdoctorale opleiding Accountancy”)
- 1988-1990: NivRA first phase
- 1986-1988: H.E.A.O. business economics, HES-Amsterdam
- 1984:1986: H.E.A.O. business computer science, HES-Amsterdam

WORKING EXPERIENCE

- 2005-present: Board member NYK Europe Ltd, London
- 2005-present: CFO Yusen Air & Sea Service (Europe) B.V., Amsterdam
- 2005-present: Established as independent advisory service agency ('zelfstandig gevestigd')
- 2003-present: Chairman of the exam-committee of the 'post master Auditing' (PMA) education of the University of Amsterdam
- 1994-present: University of Amsterdam, Teacher Post-Masters Auditing (PMA)

Previous jobs:

- 1999-2005: Controller and internal auditor Yusen Air & Sea Service (Benelux) B.V., Amsterdam
- 2000-2003: Member of the exam-committee of the 'post master Auditing' (PMA) education of the University of Amsterdam
- 2004-2005: Member of the Dutch exam committee for the national examination on auditing.
- 1984-1999: Working for Auditfirms PricewaterhouseCoopers & Mazars in different positions, of which one year in Curaçao, Dutch Antilles

PUBLICATIONS

Publication in 'de Accountant' September 1994

- P.J. Steman and J.F. Osendarp, 'Does the academic education on auditing provide sufficient expertise to enable a proper functioning in the modern audit practice' ('Geeft de accountantsopleiding voldoende deskundigheid om te kunnen functioneren in de modern accountants-controlepraktijk')